Take My Chances

Release Date: July 29, 2003

Joe Deveau's brand new CD, Take My Chances, is a study in contrasts that grabs the listener by the downbeat and holds tightly until the final song's fadeout. Joe's crystal-clear, crisp, rich, resonant voice with mile-wide range has impeccable pitch and "who-needs-to breathe?" breath support. They reveal a trained musician who has mastered the art of pop/rock genres with a bit of funky, rappy, R&B balladeering that keep the listener loving—and anticipating—the sounds Joe creates.

Take My Chances is filled with life-experienced lyrics where Joe rhymes about anything from couch-potatoes-turned-TV producers to lending a hand with hospital bills. His words and stories boldly go where others have never imagined, enchanting listeners all the way. Joe's learned from the masters. Listen for Motown sounds—even a hint of Gospel Choir—and Beatles influence throughout the CD, scheduled for a July 29th release. Absorb his soon-to-be famous style that's destined to become the yardstick that measures future talents.
