

About Joe Deveau...

Joe Deveau is a singer/pianist who is getting attention from the music world. His songs have been compared to Billy Joel and Maroon 5, blending piano-based rock with a touch of classic R&B.

Joe has received numerous TV placements, including songs on "Judging Amy," "Joan of Arcadia," "Dawson's Creek" and "Party of Five." His single "All Over You" has held the #1 position on MP3.com's pop chart, and his song "Moved to Hollywood" received Honorable Mention in the John Lennon Songwriting Contest.

Deveau's most recent recording, Take My Chances, has received rave reviews, most recently in Keyboard Magazine. Building on this momentum, Joe has started writing and recording his next CD, which will be completed in early 2005.

Quotes...

"Take My Chances has it all: competent vocal harmony, refined Wurly, Rhodes, Hammond, and acoustic piano sounds, and impressive chops from all band members that fit naturally into touching songs. Deveau delivers intelligible lyrics about everyday experiences in an unstrained voice. There's humor, sentimentality, and even plainness here. Bravo!"

- Keyboard Magazine

"Something fresh and bold: piano-based rock with jazzy/folky underpinnings that swing like crazy...all of which Deveau translates into his own uniquely familiar style."

- Amplifier

"Keep an ear out for the dulcet tones of Joe Deveau."

- Boston Globe
